

Women In Politics Productions, LLC Presents

Produced in cooperation with the National Association of Commissions for Women and The Women's Research and Education Fund

NOW AVAILABLE: A national, bipartisan, 30 minute documentary titled A Woman's World: Women in Politics, about the entry and involvement of women in politics.

- A high quality, educational, contemporary documentary on the issue of women in politics for young women
Will educate and inspire young women to get involved in the political process

Three segments highlight intriguing, individual interviews with women politicians from all over the country. This diverse group represents offices held on the federal, state and local levels. Each segment is visually different, stimulating and sometimes emotional. A personable host engages in occasional light humor as she guides us from interview to interview and throughout the video.

- A positive look at the opportunities in politics for young women and also stresses the importance of voting and working on women's campaigns
Opinions about politics from young women and men that the audience will find interesting, encouraging and entertaining

A powerful, energetic "feature film open and close" with scenes referencing a first woman president. Continuous, upbeat, original music plays throughout the program giving it a positive feel and keeping the young audience hooked.
